

The old Union Church, Schellsburg near Bedford, Pa.

Built in 1806, this old landmark was the first Protestant Church west of the Susquehanna River. The well preserved interior, with its old wooden seats, vine glass pulpit, aged hymnals, etc., must be seen to be appreciated. Open to the public, via caretaker.

Dear Father and Mother
We enjoyed our visit very much. We were there afternoon. It is also a beautiful view again.
All of us also liked
the trip to the zoo.
We were on the road with John and turned off at Bedford.
We are staying at the same place as last year.
Dad
